The image shows the Zenodo website's login and sign-up modal. The modal is a blue rectangle centered on the page. At the top of the modal is the Zenodo logo. Below the logo, the text "Log in to account" is displayed. There are two main sections for authentication. The first section contains two buttons: "Log in with GitHub" and "Log in with ORCID". A red arrow with a circled "1" points to the "Log in with ORCID" button. Below these buttons is a separator "— OR —". The second section contains two input fields: "Email Address" and "Password", followed by a blue "Log In" button. Below the "Log In" button, there is a link "New to Zenodo? Sign Up" with a red arrow and a circled "2" pointing to it. At the bottom of the modal, there is a link "Forgot password?". The background of the page shows a search results page with a blue header, a search bar, and a list of search results. The Zenodo logo is also visible in the top right corner of the page.

The screenshot shows the Zenodo 'New upload' interface. At the top is a blue header with the Zenodo logo, a search bar, and navigation links for 'Upload' and 'Communities'. A user profile 'spesant@marum.de' is in the top right. Below the header is a light gray bar with a 'Delete' button on the left and 'Save' and 'Publish' buttons on the right. The main section is titled 'New upload' and includes instructions: '(i) Upload minimum one file or fill-in required fields (marked with a red star). (ii) Press "Save" to save your upload for editing later. (iii) When ready, press "Publish" to finalize and make your upload public.' Below the instructions is a 'Files' tab with a dropdown arrow. To the right of the tab are 'Choose files' and 'Start upload' buttons. A large red arrow labeled '1' points to the 'Choose files' button. Another large red arrow labeled '2' points to the 'Start upload' button. The main area contains the text 'Drag and drop files here' followed by '— or —' and a blue 'Choose files' button. At the bottom, a note states '(minimum 1 file required, max 50 GB per dataset - contact us for larger datasets)'. The footer has a 'Communities' link with a help icon and a 'recommended' dropdown menu.

📄 Digital Object Identifier

e.g. 10.1234/foo.bar

Optional. Did your publisher already assign a DOI to your upload? If not, leave the field empty and we will register a new DOI for you. A DOI allows others to easily and unambiguously cite your upload. Please note that it is NOT possible to edit a Zenodo DOI once it has been registered by us, while it is always possible to edit a custom DOI.

📄 Reserve DOI

📅 Publication date *

2018-03-29

Required. Format: YYYY-MM-DD. In case your upload was already published elsewhere, please use the date of first publication.

Scroll down, 1 Type in the Title; 2 add all the authors of the publication; and as much as possible, 3 Include the ORCID of all authors (you can find the ORCID of all ATLAS members here)

The image shows a web form for creating a publication entry. It includes fields for Title, Authors, Description, and Version. Red circles with numbers 1, 2, and 3, along with red arrows, highlight specific parts of the form: 1 points to the Title field, 2 points to the 'Add another author' button, and 3 points to the ORCID ID field for the first author.

1 → Title  Required.

Authors *

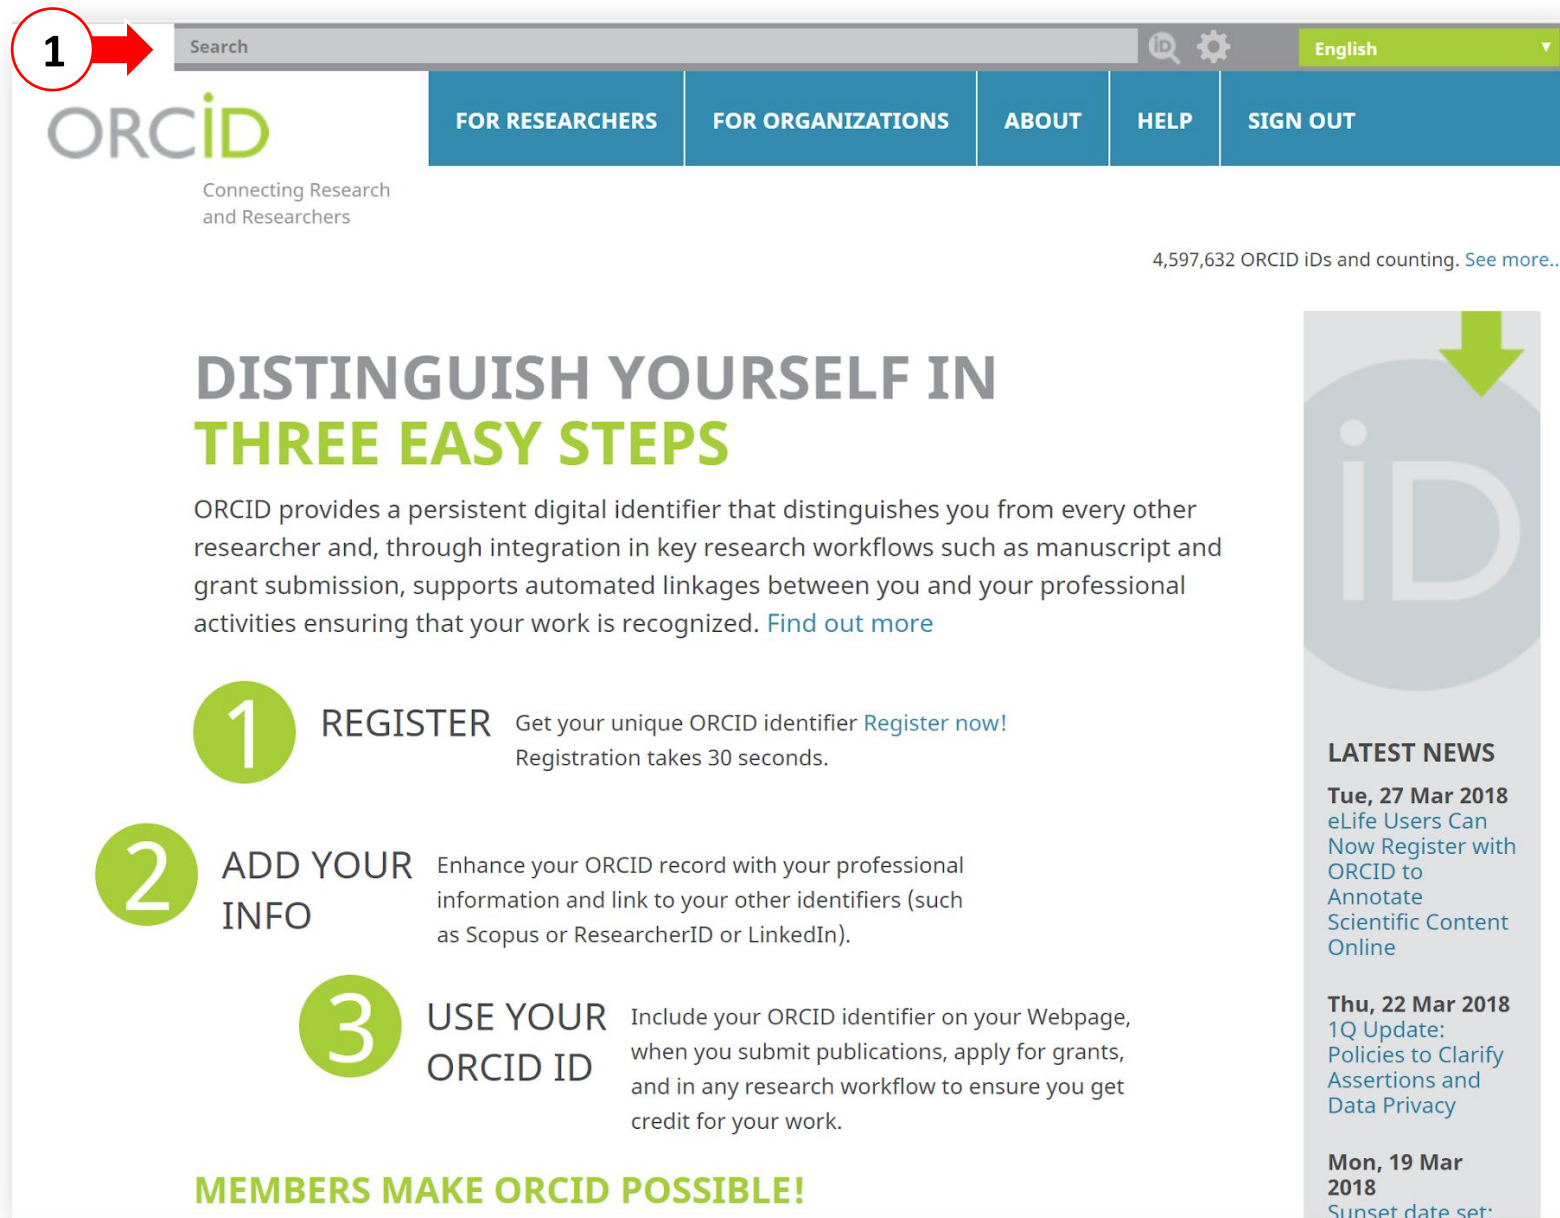

Pesant, Stéphane	Universität Bremen	3 0000-0002-4936-5209	Optional.
Roberts, Murray	UEDIN	0000-0003-1688-5133	Optional.

2 → + Add another author

Description * Required.

Version Optional. Mostly relevant for software and dataset uploads. Any string will be accepted, but semantically-versioned tag is recommended. See semver.org for more information on semantic versioning.

You can also search for anyone's ORCID here: <https://orcid.org/>

The screenshot shows the ORCID website homepage. A red circle with the number '1' and a red arrow points to the search bar at the top left. The search bar contains the text 'Search'. To the right of the search bar are icons for a magnifying glass, a gear, and a language dropdown menu set to 'English'. Below the search bar is a navigation bar with links: 'FOR RESEARCHERS', 'FOR ORGANIZATIONS', 'ABOUT', 'HELP', and 'SIGN OUT'. The ORCID logo is on the left, with the tagline 'Connecting Research and Researchers'. Below the navigation bar, it says '4,597,632 ORCID iDs and counting. See more...'. The main content area features a large heading 'DISTINGUISH YOURSELF IN THREE EASY STEPS'. Below this is a paragraph explaining ORCID's purpose and a link 'Find out more'. The three steps are listed below: 1. REGISTER (Get your unique ORCID identifier, Register now!, Registration takes 30 seconds.), 2. ADD YOUR INFO (Enhance your ORCID record with your professional information and link to your other identifiers (such as Scopus or ResearcherID or LinkedIn).), and 3. USE YOUR ORCID ID (Include your ORCID identifier on your Webpage, when you submit publications, apply for grants, and in any research workflow to ensure you get credit for your work.). On the right side, there is a large 'iD' logo with a green arrow pointing down. Below this is a 'LATEST NEWS' section with three entries: 'Tue, 27 Mar 2018 eLife Users Can Now Register with ORCID to Annotate Scientific Content Online', 'Thu, 22 Mar 2018 1Q Update: Policies to Clarify Assertions and Data Privacy', and 'Mon, 19 Mar 2018 Sunset date set:'.
